

Cities on Volcanoes 10

NAPOLI | ITALY
SEPTEMBER 2-7 2018

The Volcanic wines of Italy: an exclusive workshop and tasting on the volcanic wine region of Italy

6 Settembre ore 19:15 Mostra D'Oltremare

Luciano Pignataro, giornalista and wine blogger will moderate a discussion and tasting led by volcanologist and archaeologist. It will focus on the Italian's volcanic history and wine production, through the unique soils and microclimates.

Taste nine wines covering a representative spectrum of styles and ages based on Italy's exceptional grapes (Vesuvio, Campi Flegrei, Soave, Lessini Durello, Pitigliano, Gambellara, Colli Euganei, Etna, Vulture).

Dott. Maurizio Russo, Vice Presidente Consorzio Tutela Vini Vesuvio

Welcome to Vesuvio region

Dott.ssa Chiara Mattiello

The Volcanic Wine Association

Dott. Nicola Matarazzo, Direttore Consorzio Tutela Vini Vesuvio

The biodiversity of Vesuvio wines

Prof. Sandro Conticelli

Geochemical and geological tracers for the definition of the terroir and the geographical origin of wine.

Prof. Ferdinando De Simone, Accademia delle Belle Arti di Napoli

Classical archaeologist, expert on Roman wine production

Dott. Luciano Pignataro, Giornalista and Wine Blogger

Moderator and wines tasting

